

TORONTO Community Consultation Meeting

The City of Toronto holds public consultations as one way to engage residents in the life of their city. We invite you to get involved.

Planning application for: 95 ST JOSEPH STREET

The City is holding a Community Consultation meeting where you can learn more about this application, ask questions, and share your comments.

Details are as follows:

Date: Thursday, June 20, 2019
Time: 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
Place: Northrop Frye Hall, Room NF003 (Theatre)
73 Queen's Park Crescent East

Proposal

An Official Plan and Zoning By-law Amendment application to permit a mixed-use building with a 15-storey component and a 39-storey component. The proposed development would retain the front facade of the existing building along with the interior chapel. The remainder of the existing 4-storey Cardinal Flahiff Basilian Centre would be demolished. The proposed development includes ground floor retail space, institutional space, and 502 residential units. A total of 159 parking spaces and 646 bicycle parking spaces are proposed to support the new development. You can view the submitted plans and reports online at: <https://aic.to/95StJosephSt> You can view a copy of the Preliminary report providing background information at: <https://www.toronto.ca/legdocs/mmis/2019/te/bgrd/backgroundfile-131648.pdf>
